FOREWORD

This year 1954-55 has provided Pasadena High School with many "firsts". Any first is noteworthy; yet Pasadena students and faculty members participated in every "first" during 1954-55. Remember such events as our first dance? Our first football game? Our first issue of the school newspaper? The mixed anticipation of our first grades? All of our activities were stamped with the same label—"First".

Now, we proudly present our first yearbook. Let us look back over the past year and observe the little and the big things we did that make up "Our First".

MRS. GLADISS EDWARDS
Principal

The year 1954-55 has been an historic one for Pasadena High School. In one short year the students and faculty have achieved a long series of outstanding successes. We are ever alert to the abundant heritage of accomplishment bequeathed us by a great Pasadena High School of yesteryear. We have all come to realize that whereas buildings and grounds are significant to a school, they are not as important as the human element. The total staff is deeply grateful to the members of the Class of '55 for their leadership in establishing worth-while traditions.

The Heart of Pasadena High School is in its program of education and the quality of learning and living that takes place within its classrooms.

The Spirit of Pasadena High School is its student body and is evidenced by excellent standards, unselfish service and high morale.

The Way of Pasadena High School has been clearly identified by our pioneer team this year—Our First.

The Way of Greatness is the Way of Quality.
We Are On Our Way!

Interpretation of Feeling

There were two speech contests at Pasadena High School this year. The speeches for the Lions' Club contest were based on "Safety Through Sane Living". The three students chosen to represent Pasadena High were Verna Carter, Patsy McKee, and Keith Jacoby. Verna, who won the local finals, represented the Pasadena Lions' Club in the district contest. The Native Sons of the Golden West also sponsored a speech contest. The speeches for this contest were based on "California History". Crystal Watson was selected to represent Pasadena High in this contest.

"A" FOOTBALL

Pasadena's Bulldogs (as a single unit set apart from the college) opened a new era of high school sports in 1954. Under the expert leadership of head coach Ed Nyden, last year's college coach, and coach Bob Bastian, the fighting Bulldogs compiled a five win, four loss record against the hardest free-lance competition they could find.

A case of jitters was the cause of their first defeat at the hands of Compton. When the mighty Cavemen of San Diego came to Pasadena for battle, they were impolitely sent away licking their wounds to the tune of a 25-0 defeat. This first win for Pasadena unveiled a fine junior quarterback by the name of Don Hall of whom Crown City fans were to hear more. A halfback by the name of Hideki Hamamoto was also thrown into the limelight for the remainder of the season.

After the San Diego victory the Bulldogs gained momentum and proceeded to roll over Fillmore, 44-0, and Antelope Valley, 33-13.

Next in line was the powerful Baldwin Park club. In the first series of downs, Hamamoto worked his favorite off-tackle play and went all the way for six points, but when the dust cleared that evening, the scoreboard showed a 6-7 defeat for Pasadena.

With spirit high, the Bulldogs came back to knock off Long Beach Poly 32-14 and Point Loma 27-19.

Pasadena then journeyed to Las Vegas and suffered a hard fought 7-20 loss. In their last tussle of the season, Pasadena was nosed out by John Muir 12-19 in the new series of Turkey Tussles. As the first season came to a close, our hats were off to our fighting team.

BULLPUP FOOTBALL SEASON

The Bullpups of Pasadena made their big brothers proud of them by running up a terrific eight win and one loss record. Led by the running of Wesley Johnson and Dirk Bailey and the passing of Tom Kennedy, the lightweights had a powerful scoring punch. The stone wall defense of the Pups held their opponents to an average of less than five points per game. Their only loss came at the hands of Long Beach Poly, 6-9. Puente, Muir, and Burroughs were the only other teams to score on the Bullpups.

Coached by Jerry Todd, the Bullpups showed their school that they were not to be forgotten.

Although Coach Len Yandle's Bulldogs found the early season rocky and had to fight an uphill battle, his "never say die" cagemen managed to compile a 10 win 19 loss record. Playing the top competition in the southland, the Bulldogs were able to garnish only one win in their first twelve games. However, the last half of the season found the team whipping into shape and winning nine of their last seventeen games.

The standout player for the Bulldogs was Jerry Warnick who scored 423 points for the season in 23 games for an amazing 18.5 average. Warnick also boasted a 54.9 free throw average.

Jim Hezlep and Art Turner in a top brand of playing also helped the Bulldogs in their precious victories.

"B" BASKETBALL

Sparked by team efforts and spirit the fighting Bullpups showed their greatness. Coach Art Schechter taught his boys how to win, and they came through for him with a great 19-3 record for the season. Wasting no time, the team was off to a fast start by winning their first 12 games.

In their second meeting with Fillmore, the Pups lost a 52-54 decision in one of the most thrilling games of the season.

Tom Kennedy, Dave Newhart, Ted Hagstrom, and Flip Hoover were the four tops scorers of the season. Many of the Bullpups will be back next year for what will be another great season for PHS.

TRACK

Coach Ed Nyden's cindermen, though hindered by a small turnout which forced the bees to merge with the A's, produced one of the most potent teams in California.

Although having a mediocre seasonal record, the Bullodgs produced some top men to plague their opposing teams.

Perhaps, the greatest athlete in the young history of PHS was Bob Poynter. Up to printing date, Poynter has gone undefeated through ten meets and the C.I.F. semifinals in the 100 and 220 yard dashes with his best times 9.9 and 21.1 respectively.

Other top men during the season were Warren Gray in the shot put, Arvid Lindholm in the mile, Flip Hoover in the high jump, and Chuck Piggee in the hurdles.

GYMNASTICS

Under the expert leadership of Coach Jerry Todd, the PHS Musclemen went all the way in their first year and became the C.I.F. Champions.

The squad suffered only one loss, and that was in their first meet with Long Beach Poly. Later, however, they convincingly won a second meet with Poly gymnasts.

Outstanding men for PHS were Cliff Lewis, Burch Kelly, Raymond Yagami and Geno Signorino.

SWIMMING TEAM

Although lacking depth, coach Chud Long's aquamen came through with a fine showing for the season with a 7-3 record.

The Bulldogs got off to a shaky start by dropping two of their first three meets. Then the tankmen caught fire and grabbed six victories in a row before dropping their last meet of the season to Muir.

Two of the top individual standouts for PHS were Fred Doehring and Dick Patterson. Doehring carried his school colors to the C.I.F. finals where he won fifth place in the 50 yard free style.

GOLF TEAM

Coach Len Yandle's golf team although lacking in depth came through with a well fought season. Their most impressive wins came when they out-stroked powerful Pacific and Chaffee squads.

Showing best form through the season were Dave Kelly, Ralph Derrick, and Richard Primeaux.
